

TO THE HONORABLE SENATE:

The Committee on Economic Development, Housing and General Affairs to which was referred Senate Bill No. 222 entitled "An act relating to recognition of Abenaki bands and groups as tribes" respectfully reports that it has considered the same and recommends that the bill be amended by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 1. FINDINGS

The general assembly finds the following:

(1) State recognition of Vermont's tribes is necessary in order for the Indian Arts and Crafts Board (IACB) of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to permit them to market their arts and crafts as authentic Indian products and to provide tribal members access to state, federal and private aid for cultural, artistic, and educational endeavors.

(2) In May 2006, the General Assembly passed S.117, Act 125, in an effort to recognize the Abenaki people and create a Vermont Commission on Native American Affairs IABC. The Act failed to comport with the recognition requirements of the, and therefore prevented Vermont Native Americans from marketing their arts and crafts as authentic Indian works.

(3) Fifteen other states have recognized their resident Native people as American Indian Tribes, without any of those tribes previously or subsequently acquiring federal recognition.

(4) According to a public affairs specialist from the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) state recognition of Indian tribes plays a very small role in regard to federal recognition. The only exception is when a state recognized a tribe well before 1900.

(5) Recognition of a tribe by a state at this time will play no significant role in any subsequent effort to gain federal tribal recognition.

Sec. 2. 1 V.S.A. § 852 is amended to read:
